

Gunlocke®

United Way of the Southern Tier

The Gunlocke Company earned United Way of the Southern Tier's highest campaign honor for its outstanding performance in the 2011 Community Campaign.

Gunlocke increased its total campaign by 41 percent, raising $79,279 in 2011. For this achievement, the company received United Way's Pinnacle Award, which recognizes an organization or individual who has reached a pinnacle of achievement.

Gunlocke also received the New Donor Participation Award, which recognizes the organization whose campaign included the highest percentage of new donors.

Pictured above, campaign coordinator Karen Valle and CEO Don Mead pose with Gunlocke's awards at the 2011 Campaign Celebration. Also pictured is United Way President Ron Hatch.